“ To The Villanueva Family, my heartfelt condolences on the passing of Rosie-Girl, as I affectionately called her. We worked together for quite a number of years at TCHHSA. We experienced her deep love and affection of her family through photos and stories of Fun times shared. And we will never forget the lovely flower bouquets she received feom her family while at work. She shared them with us all. Rosie-Glrl will be Truly missed. May All the loving memories of her comfort you over time. Monique Spence.
