

Roy Moore

June 20, 1940 - May 13, 2014

Roy Monroe Moore was born on June 20, 1940 in Visalia, California to Monroe and Edna Moore. He passed away quietly on May 13, 2014 also in Visalia. Roy is preceded in death by his parents, Monroe and Edna, and his sister Patricia Moore. He is survived by a sister, Glenda Elam and his three children; Elizabeth Hobbs, Daren Moore and Diana Hancock. Roy also leaves 4 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. Roy attended school in Ivanhoe and Visalia, graduating from redwood High School in 1959. He spent his career working as a commercial roofer and leaves evidence of his fine craftsmanship throughout the central valley. Roy was an avid sportsman and enjoyed all types of hunting and fishing. He received many awards for his skill and accomplishments in archery. Long before today's wireless communication, Roy enjoyed Ham radio and spent many hours in this endeavor; enjoying conversations and making friends near and far. He was an experienced vegetable gardener and citrus grower and also a big time Nascar fan. Roy was a hard-working man who will be missed by many. His family takes comfort in knowing he has gone home to rest. Blue skies smilin' at me, nothin' but blue skies do I see. Bluebirds singin' a song, nothin' but bluebirds all day long.
