

Ruben Martinez Pacheco

December 13, 1963 - January 24, 2025

Today, we gather to celebrate the extraordinary life of Ruben Pacheco, a man whose unwavering resilience, unrelenting determination, and unconditional love inspired countless hearts.

Born on December 13, 1963, Ruben grew up as the youngest of eight siblings, but he never let his position as the "baby" of the family hold him back. Instead, he learned to be resourceful, self-sufficient, and fiercely independent, rising above the challenges of his environment to prosper and thrive.

In his own words, Ruben lived by a simple yet powerful creed: "Take care of business." And that's exactly what he did, pouring his heart and soul into everything he touched. As a jack-of-all-trades and a master handyman, Ruben could fix, build, and create anything, inspiring awe and gratitude in all who knew him.

But Ruben's greatest pride and joy was his family. He loved his loved ones with every fiber of his being, and his devotion to them was unwavering. He was a rock, a shelter, and a safe haven, always there to lend a listening ear, a helping hand, or a comforting presence.

As we say goodbye to this remarkable man, we take comfort in the memories we shared with him. We remember his infectious laughter, his generous spirit, and his unshakeable commitment to those he loved.

Rest in peace, boom chicken. Your legacy will live on through the countless lives you touched, the many hearts you inspired, and the countless memories we will cherish forever. You will be deeply missed, but your love, your light, and your laughter will never be forgotten.
