

Russell Jesse Palomino

November 24, 1978 - March 8, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Russell Jesse Palomino, who passed away on March 8, 2026, at the age of 47.

Russell was born in 1978 in Chicago, Illinois, to Jesse and Guadalupe Palomino. His family later relocated to Porterville, California, where he attended school and graduated from Monache High School. He later moved to Visalia, California.

Russell was a deeply beloved father, son, fiance, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. His passing was sudden and unexpected, but his family finds comfort in knowing he was doing what he loved most, riding his Harley.

In 2021, Russell met his fiance, Anabel Perez, and together they began building a life filled with love, adventure, and cherished memories. They traveled the world, and Anabel supported and encouraged his many business ventures. Over the past five years, they created a beautiful life together with their blended family.

Russell is survived by his mother, Lupe; his fiance, Anabel; his sisters, Jessica and Rosalyn; his brother, Daniel; his children, Nathaniel, Frank, Vanecia, and Abigail; and his grandchildren, Nova and Nylani.

He was preceded in death by his father, Jesse James Palomino, and his brother, Jesse Palomino.

Some people leave a lasting mark on everyone they meet, and Russell was one of those people. Known for his friendly, outgoing, and spontaneous personality, he was adored by all who knew him. Russell was truly one of a kind and will be forever missed.
