

Ruth Quiroz Molano

January 10, 1953 - October 30, 2025

Ruth Quiroz Molano, 72, of Visalia, California, entered the presence of her Savior Jesus on October 30, 2025. She was born on January 10, 1953 in Hanford, California, and was raised in Corcoran, California, by her parents Mary and Pablo Quiroz. During junior high, Ruth met her husband, Fred, and they were married for 53 wonderful years.

Ruth's life was a testament to perseverance, dedication, and love. While working as a farm laborer, she pursued her education and earned her degree from Fresno State University. She went on to serve as a special education teacher for the Tulare County Office of Education, touching countless lives with her patience and compassion before retiring in 2016.

Ruth was a loving Christian and a member of Grace Bible Church in Visalia. She was known throughout her community for her kindness, joy, and infectious smile. Her positive attitude brightened every room she entered, and her generosity knew no bounds. She was always available to her family.

Above all, Ruth cherished her family. In her retirement years, she and her husband traveled together, building lifelong memories. She delighted in spending time with her grandchildren, whether cheering them on at baseball games or playing with them on the living room carpet. She made sure every grandchild's tummy was always full, whether with her delicious home-cooked meals or special outings to their favorite restaurants.

Ruth is survived by her loving husband, Fred Molano. She also leaves behind her two sons: David Molano (Katie), and Fred Molano Jr. (Jessica). Ruth had five dear grandchildren: Fred (12), Finn (10), Titus (7), Evelyn (4), and Hannah (1). Additionally, she is survived by her two brothers, Bobby Quiroz and Pablo Quiroz.

Ruth's legacy of love, faith, and joy will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
