Sally Ferrer: Faithful Woman of God, Retired Plum Grower, Civil Rights Activist

Sally Ferrer Garcia, 97, of Dinuba, Calif, entered into eternal rest on June 11, 2025. She was born on Dec 4, 1927, in San Fernando, Calif, to Felipe and Tranquilina Ferrer.

In 1967, Sally and her husband Jesus moved to Dinuba with their 11 children and later welcome their twelfth child after settling in their new ranch. Sally and Jesus cultivated 15 acres of plums over the course of 25 years. A hardworking woman from the very start. Sally began laboring in the fields with her family at just the age of 13 years, working tirelessly up and down Calif.

More than a grower of fruit, Sally was a faithful woman of God- a true warrior whose quiet strength; unwavering devotion, and humble service left lasting impact on all who knew her. Her life was firmly rooted in grace, love, and deep spiritual conviction.

Sally was also a tireless civil rights activist. She devoted her life to standing against hatred and intolerance, becoming a powerful voice in her community. She worked passionately to uplift the lives of farm workers and to defend the rights of those treated unjustly, always advocating for dignity, fairness, compassion.

She is survived by her two sisters, Aurora St Amant and Rosie Rios; and her ten children: George Garcia, Samuel Garcia, Sylvia Kay Olsen, Jesse Garcia, Evelyn Thompson, Abraham Garcia, Elizabeth Gonzalez, Rebecca Antonio, Sara Michelle Sanchez, and Monique Garcia. Sally was a proud grandmother to 27 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Her legacy of faith, justice, and love will continue to bloom in the lives of those she touched.
