

Salvador Delgado

June 3, 1954 - September 4, 2018

Our loving father, Salvador Delgado "Don Chava" was born June 3, 1954 in Mexico. He was an outstanding family man with an incredible work ethic and loved by so many in his family and community. He is second to the youngest of 8 brothers and sisters: Abigail, Beatriz, Refugio, Alfonso, Ruben, Rogelio, and Amelia. Don Chava married the love of his life, our mom Lucero, in 1977 and had 3 children: Gaby, Lupita, and Salvador, Jr. Our parents were married for 42 years and all those years dad spent them side by side with mom. Don Chava was also the most loving and proud grandpa to Damian.

He owned his own business which is now so lovingly being taken care of by our brother Sal Jr and our mom. He worked hard to provide a beautiful home to mom and our family. He was the pillar of our family and all his extended family. He would give his shirt off his back to help his friend, neighbor and family members. Don Chava loved his friends and was an avid horseshoe player. His loss cuts so deep but we remember him with so much love and care. His legacy will live on through all our family and friends.

Nuestro querido papa, Salvador Delgado "Don Chava" nacio el 3 de junio del 1954 en Mexico. El fue un hombre ejemplar, muy responsable, y muy trabajador. El amaba a su familia y a su comunidad. El era de los mas chicos de su familia de 8 hermanos y hermanas: Abigail, Beatriz, Refugio, Alfonso, Ruben, Rogelio, Amelia. Don Chava se case con el gran amor de su vida, nuestra madre Lucero, en el 1977 y tuvo 3 hijos: Gaby, Lupita, y Salvador Jr.

Nuestros padres estuvieron casados por 42 años y todos esos años estuvieron siempre juntos. Don Chava también fue un gran y amoroso abuelo para su pequeño nieto, Damian.

El tenía su negocio propio que ahora seguirá con la misma atención por su hijo Salvador, Jr y por nuestra mamá. Don Chava trabajó mucho para proveer un hermoso hogar para nuestra mamá y familia. Él fue el pilar de todos nosotros. Él hacía hasta lo imposible para ayudar a su familia y amistades. Él apreciaba mucho a sus vecinos y amigos. Le gustaba mucho jugar herraduras. Su pérdida es tan dolorosa pero lo recordamos con mucho cariño y su legado seguirá con todos nosotros.

“My dad was the greatest man. They don't make 'em like that anymore. He loves all of his children like no other. When I wanted to go to college, we were all worried how we were going to pay for everything. He took me to visit a counselor at the University I later attended. That office is now my office where I work. It's a reminder that he is always with me!

Our hearts are shattered by Sal's passing. We are blessed to have known him as one of our dearest friends. Dear Lucero and children - he loved each of you and his precious grandson with no end, you were his world. No words can express our sorrow as Sal was a truly good man.

My uncle had such a big heart and he loved his family so much. He would open his home with open arms when we would visit. I could see how proud he was of his children and the strong individuals they have become. You will always be in our hearts and we will remember those cherishable memories that we shared as a family. Gaby, Lupe, Junior, and my aunt I want you to know that we are here for you and we love you so much.
