

Sandra Kay Jefferson-King

July 10, 1959 - February 8, 2025

Sandra Kay Williams Jefferson-King, a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished sister, and beloved aunt, passed away on February 8, 2025, at the age of 65 in Fresno, California.

Born on July 10, 1959, in Visalia, California, Sandra was the daughter of Tressie B. Williams and Lewis Stroughter. She was a graduate of Redwood High School in Visalia, Class of 1977, and pursued further studies at College of the Sequoias. Sandra made history as one of the First Black Female bank tellers in Visalia before building a beautiful life in Fresno, California, where she married the love of her life, Calvin King. They were married 12 beautiful years.

Sandra's greatest joy in life was her family. She is survived by her three children, Christopher, Caprisha, and Clayvon. She took immense pride in their achievements. Her siblings, a sister Areatha Hurt and brother George Williams III, as well as a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews, all of whom she cherished deeply.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Tressie B. Williams, her husband, Calvin King, her sister, Carolyn Epps, and her brother, Gregory Williams.

Sandra will always be remembered for her free-spirited nature, her infectious sense of humor, and, most of all, her radiant smile that could brighten any room. She had a genuine joy for life that touched everyone she encountered, and her warmth and kindness will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit and legacy of love, laughter, and resilience will live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind.
