

Sarah Louise Sandoval

March 2, 1953 - July 16, 2018

Sarah Louise Sandoval was born on March 02, 1953 in Tulare to Gilbert and Dora Garcia. Sarah is survived by her husband Armando Sandoval, her mother Dora Garcia Siblings Mark Garcia, Christine Garcia, Ernestina Ojeda, Nancy Galaviz, and Sonya Karr; children Karina Lopez; Grandchildren Anthony Lopez and Amaya Lopez, son-in-law Anthony Lopez. Sarah is preceded in death by her father Gilbert Garcia, Brother Gilbert Garcia II. Sarah was a member of "The House" and served as a minister. She served with passion and a pathos. She demonstrated a sensibility to care for the homeless, the capacity to weep with the oppressed, and the energy to rejoice with all. As a minister, her legacy is "winner of souls" and "friend to the marginalized." One word for her a giver from the heart. She helped doing missionary work in Tijuana, Mexico taking food, clothes and toys to those who lived in the dump and help to rebuild their church. In Nicaragua, she helped build wells for clean water and with supplies for farming while she was there. In Africa, she helped with farming and the need there at the orphanages. Even in the last months here on earth, she was feeding the homeless in Goshen were she resided. No need was to great or small for her. She was a counselor and mentor. She ran a women's home for women and children and she was associated with several different churches. Sarah helped build a Bible bookstore for one of her churches and she always made herself available for those who just needed encouragement and prayer. She was an inspiration not only to her daughter and her family but also to anyone who had the privilege of getting to know her. She is a treasure that will never be forgotten. A memorial service will be held at 2 PM on Sunday, July 22, 2018 at The House at Crosscity Church, 1021 S. Burke St. Visalia.
