February 11, 1936 - May 2, 2024

In Loving Memory of Senorina "NINI" Q. Anaya
February 11, 1936 - May 2, 2024

Beloved Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, and Friend
Senorina "Nini" Anaya, a source of love, compassion, and unwavering strength.

On Thursday May 2, 2024 Senorina, Nini, as known by her friends and family passed away gracefully at the age of 88 in her home in Visalia, Ca. Nini will forever be remembered by husband, Juan Anaya, of 68 years, their five children: Dora Q. Anaya, Elena Anaya, Tony Anaya, Abel Anaya, and Oscar (wife Dora) Anaya. She is also survived by her 5 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, and many more family members and friends.

Nini was born in Chihuahua, Mexico and lived the majority of her life in California. She was the eldest of all her siblings. She spent her life as a homemaker caring for and raising her five children. A true nurturer she prioritized the needs of her family above her own and was the true definition of selflessness.

Beyond being a Wife, Mother and Grandmother, Nini was a dear friend to many. She was an avid member of the Apostolic Church, she enjoyed working on word search puzzles, and loved to embroider, crochet, and cook. Her kindness and empathy reached many lives and her presence always brought a sense of comfort to those around her.

While the pain of her parting is great the love, laughs, hugs, and time spent will forever remain in our hearts.
