

Servando Loza

August 18, 1956 - November 8, 2025

Servando Loza, born on August 18, 1956, entered into eternal rest and joined God the Father on November 8, 2025.

He is survived by his loving siblings: Alfonso Loza Velazquez, Ana Maria Loza Velazquez, Lucina Loza Velazquez, Teresa Loza Velazquez, Irene Loza Velazquez, Arcelia Loza Velazquez, and Felimon Loza Velazquez. He now reunites in heaven with his beloved parents, Emilia Velazquez and Jesus Loza, as well as his siblings who passed before him: Ramona Loza Velazquez, Valentine Loza Velazquez, and Ignacio Loza Velazquez.

Servando was a beloved brother, uncle, and godfather whose presence filled his family's lives with warmth, strength, and love. A true family man, he devoted himself to those he cared for most. Servando lived every day guided by God's love and the teachings of the Catholic Church. His faith was not something he set aside or practiced occasionally, it was the center of who he was. Through his kindness and his uplifting words, he brought comfort, hope, and goodness to everyone around him.

Servando was also known for his impeccable style and grace. He dressed with elegance and carried himself with confidence and poise. As a talented cosmetologist and the owner of Servando's Salon in Farmersville, CA, he poured his heart into his work. His salon became a place filled with beauty, laughter, and connection, an extension of his loving spirit.

Those who knew him admired his devotion to God, his dedication to his family, his strong work ethic, and his kind soul. To his loved ones, he was much more than family, he was a protector, a light, and truly, an angel on earth.
