“ I remember Sharon when we were just little kids playing in the neighborhood. We would all meet at the snowcone shack on hot days behind my Aunt Elsie's house. We would go to Sharon's house to play. After we grew up and I heard my cousin Steve and Sharon got married I knew it was a God made union. Sharon always seemed so down to earth and responsible I knew they would be together forever.

Wish I could be there for you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
