

Shawn Somwang Sysavath

August 22, 1978 - April 8, 2021

Shawn (Saung) was born in the beautiful Country of Thailand. He was the second born to Lieng and Albert Sysavath. When they moved to the states, Shawn (Saung) was a very shy child, he was an older brother to three, James, David, and Justin. He would always help take care of them when their parents would be hard at work. As a young adult he found his passion helping and mentoring kids. You would always see him volunteer at youth centers and being a little league umpire. In his early 20's he decided he wanted to go to school to become a nurse. During the time he was in college he also found his passion for cooking. He broke out of his shyness and started hosting dinner parties for his friends and family. He proudly became a registered nurse in his mid. 20's. Soon after working as a registered nurse he was diagnosed with cancer leading him to leave his job and battle his disease. His family and friends were by his side every step of the way. He became cancer free a few years later, and that is when he found the love of his life Isaac. He loved to travel and was a great dog dad and a wonderful uncle to Troy, Leah, Sue Rin, and Lucas. Now at the age of 42 his family now lays him to rest. He lived his life to the fullest and never let any bumps in the road defeat him.
