

Sherry Denise Dye

December 6, 1970 - December 29, 2020

Sherry Denise Noe, born Sherry Denise Dye on December 6th, 1970 in Tulare, California. Sherry passed away suddenly at the age of 50 at Kaweah Delta Hospital after a tough battle with Covid-19. Sherry was a supportive, nurturing and loving mother to her five children Kimberly Harrison age 32, Sherray Compton age 30, Sabrina Compton age 29, Bryan Compton age 28, and Cathie Compton age 27, which she raised with her loving and devoted husband of 17 years Jerry Noe. Sherry held various jobs throughout her life but eventually she chose to stay home and raise her kids and later on her grandkids. Being a stay at home mom, grandmother and wife truly made her happy. Sherry was know for always planning events that centered around her family. During any given weekend you could find her home filled with love, laughter, music and good food. There's no doubt in our minds that Sherry will always be missed. Her vivid, vibrant and nurturing personality touched the lives of countless people. As the years float on by the memories we've all made with her, will hold a fond place forever in our hearts and minds. In closing I'd like to leave you with a quote from William W. Purkey that reminds me of Sherry. "You've gotta dance like there's nobody watching, Love like you'll never be hurt, Sing like there's nobody listening, And live like it's heaven on earth." Until we can all meet again, Rest in Peace Sherry Denise Noe. Forever we will love you.

“ Mom always was my rock my person that would be there no matter what. There are so many memories with my mother but one of the best memories I have would be our trip to Bakersfield. We were both hyper on coffee and couldn't stop laughing. We where taking funny pictures and notice the car parked in front of us had someone in it the entire time. HAHAAH it was hilarious and made us laugh so much more. Anytime I was around my mom we where laughing.
