“ When Sol walked into a room - everyone knew he was there. He lit the place up with laughter and happiness. That was his gift. He brought it with him where ever he went and we all got to have it when ever we were with him.

He was "Uncle" to my children. He was "Brother" to me. I can't think of him without a smile coming to my face. I remember once we rolled on the floor laughing for 15 minutes and didn't even know what we were laughing about. He was just fun to be with. He made you feel happy and warm and part of a family.

He taught my daughter, "A closed mouth doesn't get fed - so start making some noise". He taught my son, "Don't fight with your Sister - she loves you - and she can kick your butt".

We were fortunate to be part of his life. We are better for it and we are less without him.

Our hearts go out to Grandpa and Uncle Dave and Kamal and Kathy - and all the hearts that are broken by losing him. He gave us all something to carry with us forever. Laughter, happiness, warmth and friendship.

He's probably got Gramma Sharon in stitches now. I'm sure the place is all lit up.

“ I miss you Uncle Sol. You could make anyone laugh. We had moment's i will never forget. You taught me life lessons that I will live by.

You go back to my earliest memories at grandma & grandpa's house, to seeing you in Vegas, to working on my van. Or working with Uncle Dave.

I'm going to miss having you give us a hard time at the end of a hard days work.

Love you Uncle Sol

“ Solo - my big little brother. I miss you. Your wit was so quick and hilarious. You lit up the room with your smile. And all the funny stories you told - like making the nurse laugh so hard while you were getting your feet treated. So many memories. The day at the coffee shop when you cried in my arms. So tough and strong while being such a tender soul. You are loved and you are missed. I'm so glad for our shared memories and that you've been part of my life.

Forever your sis - Cece
