“ *Stevie was my sister. She was a bit older than I. As we grew up, we grew apart as time passed. After so many years of thinking about her and missing her I decided to try and reconnect with her. She was so kind and loving and welcomed me back into her life without hesitation. That made me so happy!
I forgot just how much Stevie meant to me.
I was only blessed with a year or two of our rekindled sisterhood before she passed. I will be forever grateful that she welcomed me back into her heart so sweetly. That was Stevie, her heart was wonderful and I miss her terribly. I comfort myself with the knowledge that she is blissfully and peacefully with Our Lord.*
