

Susan Rubalcaba Jacquez

September 19, 1957 - June 6, 2025

Susan Rubalcaba Jacquez, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and devoted follower of Christ, passed away peacefully on June 6, 2025, after a courageous battle with breast cancer. She was 67 years old.

Born on September 19, 1957, in Dinuba California, Susan was orphaned on her second birthday when her parents tragically died in a car accident. Despite this early loss, Susan lived a life full of love, grace, and unwavering faith in Jesus Christ. Raised in Cutler, CA, and later moving to Visalia as a teenager, she graduated from Redwood High School in 1975 and attended College of the Sequoias, where she met her future husband, Gabriel Jacquez. They married on February 10, 1979, and shared 46 loving years together.

Susan was a devoted stay-at-home mother to her three children-Immanuel, James, and Gabriann-whom she raised with love, strength, and a deep foundation of faith. She was also a proud and adoring grandmother to Lucy Cantu and Grace Cantu. Her life was a testimony to the love of Christ. Susan touched countless hearts through her kindness, her strength, and her steadfast belief in the goodness of God. She led others to faith not with loud words, but through the gentle witness of her life.

Susan was more than a mother and grandmother-she was a loving aunt and a mother figure to many people. Susan had a special gift of making everyone she met feel seen, valued, and loved. She remembered everyone's birthday and was present for every event big or small for her family and loved ones. Her home and heart were always open, and she delighted in bringing her family together. Her sense of humor, contagious laughter, and fun-loving nature brought light to every gathering. To know her was to love her.

Susan is survived by her loving husband Gabriel, her three children, and her brother Larry Rubalcaba. She is now joyfully reunited in heaven with the parents she never had the chance to know on Earth-a reunion she longed for her entire life.

Her family takes comfort in knowing that Susan is now in the presence of her Savior, at peace and made whole. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of faith, love, and strength will live on in all who knew her. Her life honored God, and now she rests in His eternal presence.

"Well done, my good and faithful servant." - Matthew 25:21

“ Susan was a beautiful woman Inside and out. She had a smile that radiated the room. I'll never forget her words of wisdom, our talks over coffee with prayer and laughter and her being a spiritual mama when my sisters and I needed it. Praying peace, comfort and joy to you all. Love and hugs to your whole family.

Susie was so happy that we got together, we had talked about making another one this October, I don't know if I have a heart to do one, she was supposed to help me put another one together. The next time I get to see her will be at the supper's table with our good Lord. I'll miss you friend. 🌹

“ My first encounter with Susan was at Christian Faith Fellowship in 2015...we're she greeted me with such genuine LOVE and open arms as she welcomed my husband and I to her church...and after that it never changed...her big beautiful smile her warm hugs and just the evident faithful powerful woman of God she was. She exemplified the LOVE of God and was a testament to me as a wife mother n grandmother...whom I'm thankful to have met...and the powerful prayer and discernment she spoke into my life as a wife will NEVER be forgotten...she spoke into my life when I needed a touch from God...and He chose Susan...and I will forever be thankful....to God be ALL the Glory! She now lives for eternity in His presence! She finished her race and finished it strong!! Hallelujah! We will see you soon our precious Sister! 💕👉🙏📖💪🔪🛡️🏆❤️

“ Susan was one of the first people I met in my husband Jesse Garcia's family over 25 years ago. From the very beginning, she welcomed me with warmth and kindness—I immediately felt like part of the family.

Over the years, Susan remained a constant source of love, connection, and strength. She had a way of bringing everyone together, and her home truly felt like everyone's home.

I deeply admired her devotion to God, her unwavering love for family, and her strong sense of purpose. I will always remember her beautiful laugh and the joy she found in her children and grandchildren.

She touched so many lives and will be missed by all who knew her. May she rest in peace and continue to watch over us from heaven.
