“ Teresa a wonderful and very spiritual lady loved by many. My family included. Several times we'd share memories of Rancho Blanco. Everytime i saw her she always had a huge smile on her face. Plus she was always there when my family faced personal losses. Thank you Teresa for being the person you were. I have no doubt that you went straight to Heaven to join your loved ones. God Bless you 🙏👉👈✝️

“ Teresita, as we knew her at VHC, was a ray of sunshine. Her warmth pierced through even on the hardest days, as if she knew how comforting her presence was just what we needed. I will never forget her energy! I will never forget how proud she was of her children, grandchildren and greats! She was a prime example Of how to live and follow God’s word; of how our faith must never waver even when we feel like giving up; and how to love your brethren. Teresita, thank you for the persimmon cookies. Thank you for the visits and check-ins when I was expecting. Thank you for being a source of inspiration. I know you’re in heaven, right in the arms of Jesus and “Mama Mary.” May you rest in peace and may the perpetual light shine upon your soul forever. I pray for God’s comfort over her family.
