“ Teresa was my moms best friend and neighbor she and mom would travel where ever my moms car would take them for bingo! They didn't ask or tell they would just get up and go; they also loved going to the swap meet to sale together; 6 in the morning every Thursday and Sunday they were gone and back in time for bingo. They were very hard workers; Teresa was younger than my mom and would they still would scold each other if one was wrong or right, the next hr. They were calling each other to go to bingo! That was their love and passion Bingo! Teresa was our 2nd mom she would care for us when mom was out of town. One time I remember Teresa heard Rosemary my sister and I fighting and she came over and scolded us both and made us both apologize to each other and told us we were not dogs to be fighting, we we're sisters and we needed to get along like sisters! Ever since we never fought like that day again! My you Rest In Peace Teresa and hopefully you will find my mom and sister in heaven and say hello! Your daughters Sonia and Concha will miss you greatly! I know because I seen how well they cared for you everyday❤️! They were the best daughters one could ask for! Love you Teresa
