

Timmy Lee Stemple

November 26, 1963 - December 4, 2024

Timmy Lee Stemple, a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away surrounded by family and love. He was the devoted husband of Stacy Ann Stemple, with whom he shared countless cherished memories. Together, they built a family that was the center of his world.

Timmy was the proud father of Nicholas Daniel Stemple and Dillon Lee Stemple. His sons, along with their loving wives, Deanna Stemple and Adriana Stemple, brought immense joy to his life. His grandchildren-Natalie Stemple, Ryder Stemple, Ryan Stemple, and Cierra Stemple-were his greatest pride and brightest blessings. He adored being their "Papa" and filled their lives with love, laughter, and adventure.

Timmy had a zest for life and a spirit that could light up any room. Known affectionately as "The Night Rider," he was happiest when riding his motorcycle, feeling the freedom of the open road, and taking in the beauty of the world around him. Camping trips with family at Trinity were some of his most treasured moments, as they reflected his love for the outdoors and his deep appreciation for family bonds.

With his ever-present smile and infectious positivity, Timmy touched the lives of everyone he met. He lived by his favorite quote, "Get busy living," and he truly embodied those words. His legacy is one of love, kindness, and living life to the fullest.

Timmy will be remembered for his warmth, his humor, and the deep love he showed to his family and friends. Though he may no longer ride among us, his memory will forever blaze brightly in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Ride on, Night Rider. Your journey will never be forgotten.
