Dear Brett, I am thinking of you today as you remember and celebrate your late father Cousin Tim. I am sorry I was not able to attend in person. I remember when your father and your grandfather and grandmother, Uncle Al and Aunt Ruth, moved to Visalia from Southern California. They stopped at our house, as we lived on the farm in Tipton which was on the way to their house. I remember every time we visited their house, Uncle Al and Aunt Ruth had the Olympics on the TV, and they always had ice cream ready for us to eat. My Deepest Sympathy, cousin Carolyn Konovalov.
