

Troymichael Pangelinan Taijeron

December 16, 1983 - April 14, 2022

On April 14, Troy lost his battle with a long-time illness. Troy was born and raised on the beautiful island of Guam. He grew up in the village of Talofofu. Troy spent his days fishing and hunting, and his nights playing guitar and singing with his friends and family. In his 20's, Troy left home and moved to Texas. There he met his wife, Julie and became a father to Landon. Later Troy took his small family and moved to California where his family grew by one, with the birth of a second son, Logan. Troy loved his family and loved being a dad. He enjoyed taking his family out to ride dirt bikes, play sports, or even just hang out. Troy left this earthly plane with Julie by his side. Troy is survived by his wife, Julie and his two sons, Landon and Logan, his parents Ricky and Cynthia Taijeron, his brother Derek Taijeron, Joseph Taijeron, Vincent Taijeron, his sisters Ulrica Taijeron, Chantel Taijeron, and Ria Rojas, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Troy was truly and deeply loved and will be missed by all.

“ We met Troy in 2012, not long after his first stint in the hospital. You would never have known he was ill; the way he laughed and lived his life was non-stop.

Troy was a wonderful addition to the family and the years have proven that Julie had chosen wisely.

We wish Julie, Landon, and Logan strength, and hope that they can focus on the good times.

We wish Troy well on his journey and know that we will meet again, at which time we expect he'll already have the barbecue lit and be ready to cook.

I met the two in LA for uncle Mike's treatments. They were both so into each other it made uncle so proud and happy. Thank you Julie.

We met the 2 plus their 2 boys Landon and Logan again for family gathering in Bakersfield for his visit as well as my family. She made shrimp patties. Loved it.

Though I am not there to wish him farewell in Visalia my heart hurts. But knowing he's with uncle...

Thank you Julie for being the wonderful women in his life and I got to see it first hand.

This is a beautiful picture.

My prayers and thoughts always,

Love ❤️
