

Ty James Curry

March 24, 1981 - May 14, 2025

On March 24th, 1981 a tiny wandering soul was born. Ty James Curry was welcomed by parents Tom and Sandra and sisters Kelly and Brandy.

Ty lived an unconventional life, enjoying the scenery and making friends wherever he went. The Battle Born Spirit of Carson City caught his attention and became his home. His friends there soon became his second family. All the kids of Carson loved Uncle Ty.

Ty took great pride in his culinary work and helped many young cooks along the way.

He is survived by his daughters; Tyaa and Elle, mom Sandy, brother-in-law and sister Jeff and Brandy Cathey, Grandma Lea Rector, nephews Evan, Jay and John; many Curry cousins, aunts, uncles and his Carson City Crew.

He was welcomed into heaven by his dad Tom, sister Kelly, and grandparents Jim and Barbara Curry.

You did good Ty - We love you!

“ Ty worked for me at juicys. He always had us laughing. Too young to be taken away. So sorry for your loss.

“ Sending my love to the family. Ty was a ray of sunshine and brought so much love and warmth to every person he met. He never met a stranger and always had a smile on his face. I remember his stories and laughter growing up and always making me laugh with his stories and ideas. We had so many memories with good friends. You will be so missed but so loved. May you rest in peace. You are now in Heaven with Our Father. God Bless.

“ First of all you will always be my favorite. From the first day I met you at Jana's I knew you would always have the biggest part of my heart. You were the best bodyguard for Adam when he started highschool and an amazing friend to Ryan...a great brother I would say to them both. Still visiting me even though you had been having bad health but there you were sitting at my table often.... visiting me on my birthday almost every year...I will never say goodbye to you. My heart will always be full because you were in my world. I will always love you. You will always be Ty Curry to me 💜
