“Vince! I know you're in heaven having a great time! You & Victor were so nice! I couldn't understand why God took the both of you! Then I realized he only takes the best! God bless you my friend!

“I had known Vincent and Victor since the 60's and remember their love for cars. Later on both Vincent and I would have Corvettes. Vincent and I also shared an interest in Marilyn Monroe, and enjoyed comparing our Marilyn collections. He was a very thoughtful person, and had given me a picture of MM he had painted. His positive nature will be greatly missed. God Bless his soul and may he be driving a favorite car through the fluffy clouds with the Lord.
Please know my thoughts and prayers go with you,
Sue Webb

“I am very saddened by the passing of Vince. He called me 10- 12 years ago to disc weeds down on a lot in Farmersville. I was Vince's go to guy when he needed any tractor work done. Over the years we became good friends. I looked forward to seeing Vince and his smiling face. We enjoyed talking to each other. I will miss him.
Sincerely, Jack Shook

“ Vincent was a a friend of our family all my life. The Chan, Sing, Leong and Sam families grew up together--Wing Sing, my father. Sue Sing Sam, Gum, Johnnie, Billie, Wendel. Remembering all those years Vince showed kindness and friendship to me and my siblings---Linda Sing Brenner, Joe Sing, and John Sing. I saw him in hospital a few weeks ago had a wonderful conversation talking of the old days. It was a treasured memory. -- Kay Sing Speaks, Livermore, CA
