“ My Grandmother was an amazing woman and i will forever miss and love her. Growing up I didn't get to visit with this side of my family much, but Grandma always found her way to me. She would always come at Christmas time bearing gifts from her and my Dad (George). I feel so lucky to have had her in and apart of my life. Her kindness, warm and giving heart will never be forgotten. We shared many things in conversation, but most importantly we shared a love for Christ. I have no doubt.I will see and be with her again. I can only imagine the group of loved ones, people that she touched and friends over all these years that greeted her to her Heavenly Home. My eyes fill with tears not only from the sadness of my loss, but the joy that comes from knowing Jesus. Until we meet again Grandma...I love you. Debbie

“ I remember When Aunt Vivian travelled back to Missouri with me And we were preparing to leave a motel when the motel owner accused us of taking a towel. She was so angry at this woman and Informed her that She had never stolen ANYTHING in her life AND furthermore Her motel towels weren't worth stealing!! I will never forget this. She certainty did not need my help in dealing with this matter. She Had this covered!
