“ We will miss you dad-----wish the last three years would have been better but I know for sure you are in a better place, mom finally has you back after all these years. I am also thankful I spent the last three hours in the hospital with you not knowing if that would be our last meeting and it was. But I am at peace knowing now that you are at peace with MOM, THERESA and MIKE.

God speed Wesley. I know you had such happiness with my Aunt Barabara. I thank God you were surrounded by love as you passed away at home with our family. We miss you but I know we will see you again.
