“ I first met Neil some forty plus years ago at an insurance seminar when we sat beside each other. I had seen him at Saint Mary’s Church but this was our first conversation. That meeting developed into a great friendship that we continued over the years. Not sure he ever really forgave me for convincing him to be part of a fund raising committee for the Church. He did , of course, but would occasionally remind me of the experience. Fund raising is not a fun activity . He was a dear friend and will be missed by everyone who knew him. May he rest in peace.
