In Loving Memory of Xavier Isac Hidalgo

October 26, 2005 - July 20, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Xavier Isac Hidalgo, who left this world far too soon on July 20, 2025, at the age of 19. A recent high school graduate, Xavier was full of promise, passion, and love that deeply touched everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Xavier was the beloved son of Sandra and John Ramirez, and the cherished brother of Jadah, Anita, Jiona, Avery, and his younger brother Nicholas. He shared a uniquely special bond with his grandfather and best friend, Pedro Hidalgo, whose love and presence were a constant source of joy in his life. Xavier is survived by a large and devoted family that included many cousins, aunts, and uncles, who will forever carry his memory in their hearts.

He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Anita Hidalgo, and his father, Stephen Sandoval, whose spirits now welcome him with open arms.

Xavier had a heart that gave freely and generously. Whether it was making his siblings laugh, helping someone in need, or showing up with a warm hug, he lived his life full of love. His passion for football, especially his Dallas

Cowboys, which was unmatched, and he was always happiest surrounded by family, cheering on his team...as long as you didn't interrupt him.

Xavier's presence brought warmth, kindness, and light to every room. He lived with an open heart, always giving more than he asked for, and was especially devoted to those closest to him. His absence leaves an immeasurable void, but his memory will forever be a guiding light in the lives of all who loved him.

A service to celebrate Xavier's life will be August 3rd from 5pm-7pm at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. A viewing will take place prior to that from 3pm-5pm. In lieu of flowers, the family welcomes any acts of kindness done in his honor, just as Xavier would have done. Go Fund Me Link <<https://gofund.me/ee3f6ab5>>

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.

“ My dear brother words cannot explain the ache I feel that you're not here. The excitement I feel to tell you things. How much your smart remarks got me mad. I'll miss it all. I'll miss you coming to me to approve the girls you like, or even gossiping with you about anything and everything. I'll miss our walks we would take together, our even miss you getting mad at the goofy pictures I'll take of you. I was lucky enough to be so close in age with you, share our most important moments, relate to the little things. I'm proud we graduated together, I'll forever cherish that memory. No matter how much we denied it, you were truly my best friend. It's not fair you're gone. Not fair I have to continue life without you. not fair that I can't see you live your life and you won't be here to see me live mine. You were an amazing brother, son, etc. although we had our ups and downs, I know I could go to you for whatever I needed. Fly high brother kiss dad and grandma for me. I love you so much.

“ To my little brother,
Xavier i will forever miss you. It hurts so much knowing you're gone. . Its unimaginable that id ever loose you and now that its real im still trying to find ways to cope through it. I knew how much you loved your sisters. Though you can be a brat you were always my baby Brother. Ill forever cherish the memories when we played video games and laughed together when we made our first lemonade stand together. You always made me laugh and you always put a smile on all our faces. You touched so many lives so many hearts you will forever be missed brother and your story will not go unheard. I love you xavier ♥️

“Xavier, I have so many memories with you and looking back, what was constant was your smile and the fun we would have. From being silly when we would have sleepovers at grandma and grandpa’s house like making our own two person band, getting the new drone you got for Christmas one year stuck on all our neighbors’ roof’s, pretending to be ghost detectives in the backyard. What amazed me about you, was your ability to conquer each day in a world that wasn’t ready or made for you and even then you always remained supportive and willing to experience life with me and I will forever be grateful. One memory I hold very dear to me, is our road trip when you got to visit me in Humboldt County. We joked the whole time, laughed, and you got to try so many new things, like climbing in the Trees of Mystery despite being a little nervous, we did it! You were such a sweetheart and genuinely offered your support during difficult times by being present and asking the questions you needed to understand me as a person. I love that I had the opportunity to be a part of your life. You have taught me so much from the moment you were born and up to this moment. The love we all have and felt because of you will never go away. Our baby boy 💙 we will forever miss you and will never stop loving you or thinking about you.

“Xavier, rest in peace, you were taken to soon. You were full of life but God Almighty had other plans. Tia will miss our Dallas Cowboys conversation when I would visit you from Texas. A true Dallas Cowboys fan indeed. You are now in heaven with your grandma Ana and your grandparents. My mom and dad got to see you for the first time. Wrap your arms together and hug them from all of us. We miss them all. I love you, forever in my ❤️.
